

RPO Corporate Chair Partners

Unleash the power of partnership with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra

Join the ranks of companies, individuals, and families who engage with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra and its musicians by associating with specific orchestral positions through the RPO's Corporate Chair Partner scheme. By aligning your brand with a particular instrument, you can become part of the RPO family and forge a strong bond with our prestigious organisation and excellent musicians.

As an RPO Corporate Chair Partner, you will join an exclusive club of like-minded individuals and business leaders who enjoy a close association with the RPO and its musicians.

Your partnership grants you access to a range of benefits, including complimentary tickets and private receptions, where you can network with business leaders and fellow partners.

Most importantly, your contribution helps underpin the Orchestra's community and education programme, RPO Resound, a key priority for the RPO.

Don't miss this opportunity to join the journey and align your brand with the RPO.
